THE ISLAND OF TEA

COLLECTION

SPECIAL

This tea is an example of epitome of luxury with neatly rolled tea leaves into long wiry tips. Synonymous as one of the highest grade black teas, this FBOPF special tea is truly a one of a kind experience. An all day tea with a dark rich brew and a unique flowery taste which will leave you tantalized and fulfilled with each sip of this excellent beverage. Relax, enjoy and savour the art of drinking Ceylon's finest tea.

GOLD

The Island of Tea 'Gold' is a magnificent blend of pure Ceylon tea with a light brew and a mild taste. A tea which will leave you with a sense of satisfaction which will linger all day long. A perfect example of taste of Ceylon will transport you to the beautifully landscaped lush tea gardens. OP1 large leaf tea, best consumed straight.

PLATINUM

Grown in the cultural capital of Sri Lanka, this FBOP special tipple tea carries the tastes of tradition and culture. A fascinating blend of tastes which provides a dark, rich brew reminding you of the charm of the vibrant city of Kandy and the historical traditions of Ceylon tea. A tea which will make a lasting impression on your palate and mind.

HIGH GROWN

Grown in world renowned tea gardens in the hill country of Sri Lanka, this high grown tea is a subtle yet a rich blend of OP1 leaves. A delectable taste unique to this region and a bright coloured brew which can be enjoyed all day, leaving your senses refreshed and revived. Makes a perfect Iced Tea during warm summer afternoons.

GREEN TEA

Following the ancient Chinese tea culture, Ceylon green tea possesses many different characteristics and tastes unique to Sri Lanka. In ancient China where tea originate from, a tea ceremony was created by the Chinese emperors and those who valued tea as a noble beverage. Today the Chinese tea ceremonies are considered royal and require many skills and years of practice to perfect. Inspired by the Chinese green teas, the Ceylon green teas are grown in breathtaking tea gardens in Sri Lanka and green tea is produced from the exact tea plant as black tea known as Camellia Sinensis.

This collection consists of premium grades from Ceylon's best plantations, offered unblended and without any additives. The exclusive form of tin - the shape of Ceylon island making this a perfect gift, has been our signature product. Available in tin caddies with 100g and packets of 100g and 200g loose tea, 25 and 100 String & Tag teabags and individually wrapped foil sachets of 10' and 20's.

Basilur tea bags are staple-free double chamber tea bags, produced using the latest machinery.

All loose leaf teas are packed in flavour-sealed foil pouches with zipper lock.

U UVA - Grown in the eastern slopes of Ceylon's central mountains, tea from Uva district deserves to be enjoyed as a self drinking tea, especially during the Uva quality season.

D DIMBULA - Dimbula was one of the first areas in Ceylon to be planted with tea after coffee in the 1870's. The plantations produce a typical high grown tea, which is of the finest character and colour - fine BOP Special tea grade.

K KANDY - The tea plantations around Kandy, which was once an ancient capital of Ceylon, supply what are known as mid-country teas. These are notable for full bodied strong teas which appeal to everyone who likes a good coloury brew.

R RUHUNU - Ceylon's tea plantations extend from the tropical rain forest to the south-western coast. Teas from low-grown areas of Ceylon are much sought after particularly by Mid Eastern countries and the CIS. A refreshing drink for those who like a thick, sweet brew which can be enjoyed with or without milk.

N NUWARA ELIYA - It has been said that 'Nuwara Eliya is to Ceylon tea, what Champagne is to French wine'. Recognized by connoisseurs of tea as the world's best, the brew is light in colour yet, the cup will deliver a unique taste and aroma.

R RADELLA GREEN - Radella, a region embraced by tranquility, surrounded by breathtaking mountain peaks covered in mist, a land which possesses perfect climatic and soil conditions to some of the best teas in the world. Ceylon green tea is one of the most sought of green teas in the world by discerning tea drinkers for its healing properties and refreshing taste.

Available in loose leaf tea 100g tins and in packets of 100g/200g, and in teabags of 10/20 foil envelopes/sachets and 100 and 25 String & Tag teabags.

Legends hail the past victories and events, they highlight the people and values we hold dear for centuries, they inspire the future endeavours and often set the right direction for growth and development. Basilur Tea Legends Collection brings you the beautiful history of tea in all of its splendor and glory.

ANCIENT CEYLON

Ceylon, a land with a history that spans several millennia, a land which witnessed battles between great kings and warriors, a land which stood through many civilizations. An exotic island which for thousands of years bore the fruits of many trees on its rich soils. This rapturous history, the ancient vibrant culture and the modern day spirit of this magnificent island are all blended into this finest Ceylon black tea presented to you by Basilur.

EARL GREY

Basilur presents Earl Grey, a distinct part of the English tea culture, which bears many old tales. Rich Ceylon tea leaves blended with sweet citrusy bergamot flavour derives from the early 1800s. As many tales have been told and re-told on the beginnings of this exquisite marriage of ingredients, this exceptional blend of tea is a favourite amongst many tea connoisseurs across the world. Basilur re-creates this master blend with Ceylon's finest tea allowing you to enjoy the magic of the first flavoured tea.

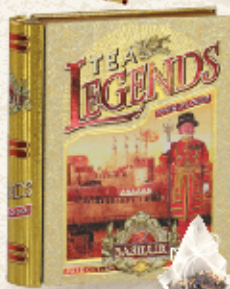

CELESTIAL EMPEROR
China is a land where the great Chinese Emperor and herbalist "Shennong" discovered a refreshing herb, which he has called the tea, while he was on an expedition. Since the discovery of this great and noble herb Chinese tea culture has evolved to be a ceremonial affair of status, class and social standing. Now Basilur brings this ceremonial Chinese green tea which depicts the history of a tradition still practiced in the celestial Chinese empire to modern tea table enabling you to be part of the roots of tea history.

TOWER OF LONDON

Tower of London which speaks of ancient history, pre and post world war eras where Kings and Queens used this magnificent castle to rule their land and affect the whole world. A bygone era where English cultures were being formed, where every act was of royal status and followed by the commoners, an era where Ceylon tea taken in the afternoon was a part of the royal traditions. Taking you to those noble times and celebrating the old English traditions, Basilur presents you this rich Ceylon black tea which adorned the royal tea traditions.

This quintessential collection depicts a story of ancient Ceylon and the European inspiration by its design. Enjoy the treasure of Ceylon's finest tea at its best.

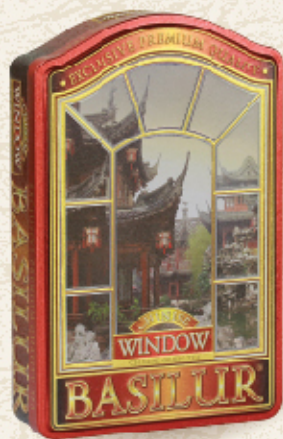

It is believed that socks and stockings were the first pieces produced using techniques similar to knitting. These socks were worked in Nelebinding, a technique of making fabric by creating multiple knots or loops with a single needle and thread. Most histories of knitting place its origin somewhere in the Middle East, from there it spread to Europe by Mediterranean trade routes, and then to the Americas with European colonization.

BASILUR®

EXCLUSIVE PREMIUM QUALITY TEA

Transforming an internationally beloved, 5,000-year old beverage into a sophisticated, premium beverage is an achievement that deserves everyone's keen attention. Basilur Tea is a company that boasts of this remarkable achievement. Located in a land that is historically renowned for its prized tea leaves, Ceylon - now called Sri Lanka - Basilur obtains the choicest tea leaves from the very source of its growth. This treasured raw material is then combined with the strengths of Basilur, which are the highest quality ingredients, unmatched tea blends and innovative, unique designs, to produce an exclusive, premium tea product.

Moving a step further by providing the world's finest tea in a unique and an extraordinary packaging, Basilur Tea Export has earned a name for its innovative and exceptional quality tea products supplied directly from right where the tea is grown, Ceylon.
